DOCKET NO. E-100, SUB 161

In the Matter of:)
Commission Rules Related to Electric) MOTION TO INTERVENE Customer Billing Data)

MOTION TO INTERVENE

Pursuant to North Carolina Utilities Commission (“Commission”) Rules R1-5, R1-7 and R1-19, and the Scheduling Orders dated February 4, 2019 and April 3, 2019 issued in this docket, Mission:data Coalition (“Mission:data”) hereby moves to intervene in the above referenced docket. In support of its motion, Mission:data states as follows:

1. In Docket No. E-100, Sub 161 the North Carolina Utilities Commission (“Commission”) is proposing to develop new rules that will amend and supplement existing rules governing consumer access to energy usage data.
2. Mission:data is a non-profit organization with its principal place of business in Seattle, Washington. Mission:data’s core pursuit is to advance the adoption of customer-friendly energy data access policies throughout the country that once adopted, will promote usage-related benefits to consumers and stimulate an innovative, vibrant market for energy management services. Mission:data has members and a constituency living and doing business in North Carolina.
3. The rules that will be proposed and eventually adopted in this proceeding will directly impact Mission:data’s core interests. Moreover, these rules undoubtedly will be a template or model for other jurisdictions considering data access policies and as such, will impact not only related matters in North Carolina but will also influence policy and rules considered and adopted elsewhere. Accordingly, Mission:data has a direct and viable interest in this docket.

4. Mission:data's address is 1752 NW Market Street # 1513, Seattle, WA 98107.
